

College of Education and Human Ecology
Application for Funding to Support International Students, Study Abroad or Professional Meeting
Opportunities

This scholarship opportunity is open to students enrolled in the Department of Human Development and Family Science, Consumer Sciences, or Human Nutrition. The Helen Strow International Programs Fund can provide funding support the following purposes:

- A three-year scholarship for undergraduate student(s) from countries without an accredited university baccalaureate program
- Short-term international study tours or courses at universities abroad that will give students (undergraduate or graduate) the chance to expand their knowledge of and experiences with families and communities worldwide
- Biannual support for an international student (undergraduate or graduate) to attend a national professional meeting, and/or for a U.S. student (undergraduate or graduate) to attend an international professional meeting

Applications will be accepted at any time in the year until all funds have been allocated. Please submit this form and the relevant materials highlighted below to the Scholarship Coordinator, F cpc'1 tcv, 170 Arps Hall, 1945 North High Street, Columbus, OH 43210 (itcv@osu.edu)

Please type up a request for funding using the format below:

EHE Application for Funding from the Helen Strow International Program Fund

Name _____

Date _____ Email number _____ Telephone number _____

For international students, Home country _____

If applicable, name of Study Abroad Program and Dates of Time Abroad
OR name, dates, and location of Professional Meeting

Describe:

- Personal goals you hope to accomplish with these funds.
- Type of experience and what it involves: For example, will you be a part of a group study abroad experience, an individual studying abroad, and/or for whom and what type of service are you providing? What will you be studying, etc.? What will the costs for the study abroad, professional meeting, or course work be?
- What is your financial need? Include such information as how you will pay for your total school costs, how you plan to pay for this experience, and how much support will you be able to secure from personal sources.