

Department of Consumer Sciences

Fashion and Retail Studies

Internships

Preparation for Jobs

Through an internship students can gain practical experience, enhance employment marketability, apply concepts, techniques, and theories covered in classes, and have opportunities for networking contacts and mentoring relationships.

Internships are required of all Fashion and Retail Studies Majors.

The Department Advising and Career Development Center offers the following resources

- Individual advising and career services
- Assistance with resume writing and job searches
- Career/Internship Resource Center
  - Computers for internship research
  - Career-related books
  - Previous Internship Supervisor Contact Information

Internship Features

- Students take a concurrent course that provides monitoring of the work experience and assignments to further develop workplace skills
- Choice of Part-time or Full-time Internship Experiences available for students

Typical Internship Sites

- Large Retail Corporations
- Large and Small Specialty Stores
- Buying Offices
- Merchandising and Design Departments
- Showrooms
- Fashion and Retail Magazines

For More Information, visit: <http://ehe.osu.edu/cs/careers>

Contact:

Joyce Brooks

Brooks.691@osu.edu

Recent Internship Sites

Abercrombie & Fitch
Anthropologie
Armani Collezioni
Banana Republic
BCBG
Disney
ECI New York
Express
Girls in White Dresses
Justice
Kohl's
Lane Bryant
Macy's
Martha Stewart Living
New York & Company
Nordstrom
Seventeen Magazine
Target
Victoria's Secret