

Alumni Profile

Lisa Maloney

Fashion and Retail Studies Major
2009 Graduate

- Employment: Gap Inc./Banana Republic, Customer Experience Leader
- Involvement On Campus: Member of the Fashion Student Organization
- Advice for current students: Work hard and stay focused on your future path, it's easy to lose sight of priorities.
- Current Volunteer Work: Through the company I volunteer with many events including the Special Olympics and Boys and Girls Club.
- Fun Facts:
 - Current Playlist: Chris Brown, Rascal Flatts
 - Fav OSU memory: Jumping in Mirror Lake every year!
 - Fav movie: Clueless, it's a classic
 - If you had a million dollars: I would start my own clothing line and own several boutiques.
 - What actor would play your role in a movie about your life: Audrey Hepburn, she was just fabulous.

Lisa worked with Banana Republic for two years while taking classes, later doing her internship with them and staying with the company after graduation. She has moved through several different roles and titles during her time with Gap Inc./Banana Republic. She loves working with local schools and businesses to promote the brand and organize store events.

Inspiring Innovation in Learning and Living

