

MASTER OF ARTS DEGREE

School of Teaching and Learning

The Master of Arts (M.A.) program in Teaching and Learning is designed to broaden and deepen perspectives around four areas central to high quality education.

1. The nature of learners and learning
2. Pedagogy
3. Academic/disciplinary content
4. Diversity, social justice, and educational equity

The program is a blend of theory and practice and is organized around a series of core courses, diverse foci of study which allow students to pursue specific interests and needs, and a guided final project. Graduates are expected to provide leadership in their fields at local, state, regional, and national levels.

OFFICE OF ACADEMIC ASSISTANCE

Academic advisers are available for appointments in the Office of Academic Services, 227 Arps Hall to answer your questions about the program and the admissions, fellowship, and scholarship processes. Scheduling begins on Wednesdays for appointments the following week. Limited walk-ins also are available each week. For assistance, call 614-292-2332 (or call 888-678-3382 toll-free and ask to be transferred).

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

To remain in good academic standing, graduate students must maintain a minimum 3.0 overall GPA.

REQUIRED HOURS

Students may choose a thesis or a non-thesis option. The thesis option requires a minimum of 45 graduate credit hours and satisfactory completion of a thesis and an oral examination. The non-thesis option requires a minimum of 50 graduate quarter hours and satisfactory completion of a written comprehensive exam or an approved alternative.

TIME LIMIT, GRADUATE NON-DEGREE AND TRANSFER CREDIT

All graduate credit hours applied to the M.A. degree, including graduate non-degree and transfer credit, must be completed within six years of the date of graduation. The program may be completed in 4-5 full-time quarters or part-time taking one or two courses per quarter. Students may transfer a maximum of 10 graduate non-degree credit hours into the M.A. program if approved by the faculty adviser and appropriate for the program in place at the time of admission. In addition, graduate credit may be transferred into the program from another institution with approval of the faculty adviser. A minimum of 36 graduate credit hours must be completed at OSU.

RESIDENCY

M.A. students in the School of Teaching and Learning must fulfill a residency requirement by completing a minimum of 12 graduate credit hours within five consecutive quarters.

SCHOOL REQUIREMENTS

Courses chosen to fulfill program requirements must meet the following criteria specified by the School:

- A minimum of 6 graduate credit hours in independent study (693/893.xx) and/or seminar (925/928.xx), but no more than 15 hours of independent study
- A maximum of 24 graduate credit hours may be graded satisfactory
- At least 18 credit hours must be taken in courses not open to undergraduate students (e.g., 800 and 900 level courses or 700 level courses specifically limited to graduate students)
- A maximum of nine credit hours may be special topics (727.xx)

PROGRAM OF STUDY
