Master of Education (M.Ed.) Leading to Ohio Teacher Licensure Middle Childhood Education Grades 4-9

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- Baccalaureate degree from an accredited college
- Minimum 3.0 overall GPA (on a 4.0 scale) in all previous undergraduate and graduate coursework (may not be combined since calculated separately) as well as in middle childhood content.
- Completion of undergraduate content courses. (Content List can be found on our website: <http://ehe.osu.edu/edtl>). Include the Plan for completing remaining content courses, which is also located online.
- Experiences working with children in a learning situation, particularly with children whose backgrounds are different than your own
- Official scores from the General Test of the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) taken within five years of application
- TOEFL score for international students, if required (minimum score 550 paper-based, 213 computer-based, or 79 iBT)
- Statement of Intent: See “application checklist” for format and instructions, located online.
- Three letters of recommendation from persons acquainted with your academic performance, your experiences with children, and your potential as a teacher. Include at least one letter from a professor or instructor who has had you in class. Recommendations written on letterhead stationery should be attached to the Graduate School Reference Form.
- Resume listing academic accomplishments, paid or volunteer experiences working with children, related extracurricular experiences, honors or awards (limit two pages for fellowship consideration)
- Interview if required by faculty committee

THE MIDDLE CHILDHOOD PROGRAM

The M.Ed. program is offered on all five campuses of The Ohio State University. It is a sequential program of professional courses leading to initial Ohio teacher licensure in grades four through nine. The sequence may vary from campus to campus and can be completed in five quarters. Students interested in middle childhood education must choose a minimum of two of the following subject areas that they wish to teach and complete specific course work in each:

- Mathematics
- Reading & Language Arts
- Science
- Social Studies

During the M.Ed. program, students engage in a coherent series of courses in adolescent development and learning, middle school philosophy and organization, teaching methods, technology, equity and diversity, field experiences, a clinical practicum, a research and inquiry component, and a culminating project focused on critical issues in education. Most of the professional courses and fieldwork are open only to those students who have been admitted to the program.

The mission of the program is to prepare dedicated individuals who possess the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to construct learning environments that are engaging, responsive, and anti-oppressive. In particular, the program is committed to building relationships and improving conditions for teaching and learning in urban contexts.

DEADLINE FOR ADMISSIONS

- See the “Application Checklist” for application procedures. Visit <http://ehe.osu.edu/edtl/> to download document.
- Apply online at <http://www.gradapply.osu.edu> (requires online payment of application fee). You may check the status of your application online at <http://www.appstatus.osu.edu>
- Applicants are responsible for ensuring that all documentation is submitted by the deadline.
- Admission is campus specific. Students who wish to change to a different campus must be reconsidered with the pool of applicants for that campus.
- Contact the regional campuses for specific information regarding their application procedures, which may vary slightly from campus to campus.

REGIONAL CAMPUS PRE-REQUISITES

In addition to the courses listed on the content sheet, students who plan to apply to a regional campus should contact the campus of choice to determine if any other courses should be completed at the undergraduate level prior to beginning the M.Ed.

COMPETITIVE ADMISSION

The M.Ed. is a competitive program with limited spaces. Meeting the minimum standards does not guarantee admission. Applicants who have completed most or all of the content courses may be given preference for admission. The admissions committee also considers diversity in the range of students related to gender, race/ethnicity, and life experience.

UNDERGRADUATE PREPARATION

Certain content courses required to meet State-mandated competencies should be taken at the undergraduate level prior to beginning the M.Ed. program (see the content sheet for Early Childhood). These courses are included in the Early and Middle Childhood Education pre-licensure major on the regional campuses and in the Early Childhood Development and Education major on the Columbus campus (614-292-6612). In addition, students may choose to major in a subject they will teach and minor in Education.

Any substitutions for the content courses require written approval from the School of Teaching and Learning based on faculty review of a course syllabus or detailed course description. Students from other institutions should meet with an academic counselor in the School of Teaching and Learning to determine which content requirements have been met and which courses need to be taken, if any, to meet Ohio licensure requirements.

OHIO REQUIREMENTS FOR PROVISIONAL LICENSURE

- Completion of undergraduate content courses
- Completion of the approved teacher preparation program
- Signed statement of good moral character as defined by the Ohio Board of Education: “A person shall be deemed to be of good moral character provided that said individual has not pleaded guilty to or been convicted of a felony”
- Fingerprinting and personal background check
- Passing scores on the PRAXIS II National Teacher Exams

Licensure requirements may be subject to change due to state-legislated mandates. Prospective students are encouraged to contact the School of Teaching and Learning each year to ensure they have the most up-to-date information.
