

The Ohio State University
College of Education
School of Educational Policy and Leadership

Approved Courses for Multicultural Requirement

Approved by the Graduate Studies Committee through 10/27/2004

- ❖ EDP&L 708 Administration of Service-Learning Programs
- ❖ EDP&L 802 Comparative Perspectives on Education And Democratization
- ❖ EDP&L 834 An Interpretive History of African American Education: 1950 to 1990
- ❖ EDP&L 839 Women in Higher Education
- ❖ EDP&L 849 Feminist Perspective of Women and Girls in Education
- ❖ EDP&L 853 Women, Technology, and Education
- ❖ EDP&L 863 In Interpretive History of African America Education: 1700 to 1950
- ❖ EDP&L 870 Internationalizing Colleges and Universities
- ❖ EDP&L 887 Diversity in Higher Education
- ❖ EDP&L 904 Women: Leadership and Empowerment
- ❖ EDP&L 909 Cultural Processes in Education
- ❖ EDP&L 953 School and Community Relations
- ❖ EDP&L 961 Social and Political Contexts of Education

At least three (3) graduate credits in multicultural education are required. Only courses meeting these criteria and approved by the Graduate Studies Committee will fulfill this requirement. Courses which meet both the multicultural and foundations requirement may "double count" to meet both requirements.