

Center for Youth and Families (2 Programs)

Crittenton Family Services: Home-Based Family Services

Contact Person: Stephanie Bryant-Simmons

Phone: 294-2661

Address: 1414 East Broad St. Columbus, OH 43205

Description of the Agency: This agency provides a wide range of services to families. The program attempts to provide the help needed to strengthen family life. The families served are culturally diverse with multiple agency's parenting and family life information/education services.

Student Responsibilities: Students interested in this placement will be participating in direct interaction with the families in need of service, and by the end of placement will have the knowledge necessary to evaluate, plan, and implement home-based services to families. Students must have knowledge in basic helping skills, the fundamentals of case management, and the ability to take on independent tasks.

Number of Students: 1

Times Available: 9am-5pm Monday-Friday

Special Requirements: A car is needed for access to this agency.

Directions for Youth

Contact Person: Stephanie Bryant-Simmons

Phone: 294-2661

Address: 1515 Indianola Ave, Columbus, OH 43201

Description of Agency: Directions for Youth is a non-profit organization that provides outreach counseling and prevention groups for youth 8-18 years. Their mission is to help young people meet the challenges presented by exposure to violence, abuse, teen sex, negative peer pressure and family problems. Prevention Programs available are Project SELF, SEARCH, STAR, SHORT STOP Teen Drop In Center.

Number of Students: Flexible

Times Available: Flexible

Special Requirements: Located on the busline and a short walk from campus. Tolerance is a MUST.