Comments:

- This curriculum is for graduate students in special education who currently hold a standard teaching certificate or license in any area of pre-K–12 education (e.g., elementary, secondary, music) and want an M.A. in special education and an intervention specialist license for students with moderate to intensive needs.
- Students must enroll only under their faculty advisor's course number/section for 884.10 and 999.10.
- This information may change without notification to the candidate. The appropriate academic unit advisor can determine requirements based upon the year of matriculation to OSU. The College of Education and Human Ecology Bulletin, the Graduate School Bulletin, and the OSU Course-Offerings Bulletin are the official university documents that apply to all programs in the School of Physical Activity and Educational Services. Although a thorough review of this document has occurred, if mistakes exist in this document, the information in the relevant university bulletin prevails.
- To qualify for Ohio licensure, all M.A. students must complete the pattern of coursework shown above. Additionally, students need to pass the appropriate Praxis examination(s) [<http://www.ets.org/praxis/prxoh.html>], and clear the FBI and BCI personal background checks.
