Unit-Wide Assessment: Using Assessment Data to Drive Instruction

The edTPA replacement committee continues its amazing work on fine-tuning the new, unit-wide assessment for our initial licensure programs. We are through the second round of validity and reliability studies and have made necessary updates to the spring version of the assessment. You will find the latest version of the assessment here. This is Assessment 5 in TK20 and must be implemented during the student teaching semester.

currently being made. Please look forward to this update in a future newsletter.

Share Program Community Engagement Initiatives

Has your program engaged with the community in a unique way? APL is now preparing for the 2021-2022 SnapShot. If you would like your program featured, please reach out to Lauren Salamone.9@osu.edu. See page 11 of the 2020-2021 SnapShot for reference.

2021-2022 Placement Statistics

Current reports detail that in 2021-22 across all campuses, 1,027 licensure students had 1,977 field placements in 462 different locations in 133 different districts/agencies. This brings the total number of hours in field experiences, student teaching, or internships to 375,924 for the 21-22 academic year! Additionally, from July 1, 2021 – June 31, 2022, 618 students were awarded their educator license or endorsement.

Please note that 2021-2022 numbers are still being reported. APL will communicate the final numbers when they are submitted.
