Application and Plan of Study for the GISQRM
Graduate Interdisciplinary Specialization in Quantitative Research Methods

Name ___________________________________ Date ________________

Name.# ____________________________________________________________________

Department _______________________________________________________________

College ____________________________________________________________________

Degree Program ________ (MA, MS, MEd, or PhD, etc.)

FOUNDATIONAL COURSWORK

Please list prior courses completed in intermediate graduate-level Quantitative Research Methods by title/content, course number and university (if non-OSU)

PLAN OF STUDY

1. REQUIRED Seminar in Interdisciplinary Quantitative Research Methods (3 credits)
   a. ESQREM 8725 or HDFS 8725 or VETPREV 8725
   Credits Date Completed
   __________ __________

2. Advanced Quantitative Research Methods (9 credits (3 courses)) selected from GISQRM Specialization Qualifying Course List*
   a. ____________________________________________
   Credits Date Completed
   __________ __________
   b. ____________________________________________
   __________ __________
   c. ____________________________________________
   __________ __________

3. Proposed title or topic of GISQRM Research Paperb
   Credits
   __________

*a For all students, the collection of four courses (including the seminar) must represent two or more graduate departments outside of your home department.
*b Committee members and one GIS Co-Director must approve the final research paper.

Committee Members (at least two signatures required, one must be a GIS Co-Director):

1. __________________________________________
2. __________________________________________

COORDINATOR ________________________________