In the “References” section on the “Final Steps/Submit” tab of the application, please request to have the letters submitted electronically by choosing “Yes” for the “Use Online Reference Form” option for each recommender. Approximately 5 days after successfully submitting the application and paying the fee, your references will receive an email notification with instructions.
- Prerequisite Completion Plan: If applicable, submit an electronic copy by uploading document to the online application. The document should be in Word format and provide a list of the prerequisites you plan to take Autumn and Spring semesters (if any) before the beginning of the program.
- ACTFL Oral Proficiency Interview and Writing Proficiency Test (World Language MEd Applicants only): Scores for both the OPI/OPI-c and WPT/i-WPT must be accessible to OSU by December 1. Follow the directions in the OSU Testing Center website. Candidates will need a proctor for each test. French, German, Italian, and Spanish required minimum score: Advanced Low. Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, and Russian minimum score: Intermediate High. When registering for each assessment, be sure to select The Ohio State University so that the university has access to your scores.

Funding Opportunities

All Graduate School fellowships provide a monthly stipend, academic tuition and fees, and a subsidy of 85% of the student health insurance premiums. These fellowships are highly competitive, nonrenewable, and cannot be deferred. Eligible students can be reviewed by faculty and nominated to the Graduate School for decisions concerning awards.

University Fellowship –Domestic and international students, the University Fellowship is a 12 month appointment with a monthly stipend. To be eligible, candidates must have:

1. A cumulative undergraduate GPA of 3.6 (4.0 scale)
2. A GRE score in the 75th percentile average on the Verbal and Quantitative sections, and a 4.0 on Analytical Writing. Or a total GMAT score in the 75th percentile.

Graduate Enrichment Fellowship –Domestic students only, a Graduate Enrichment Fellowship recruits candidates from underrepresented populations to the Graduate School. The fellowship is a 12 month appointment and offers a monthly stipend. To be eligible, candidates must have:

1. A cumulative undergraduate GPA of 3.1 (4.0 scale)
2. A GRE score in the 40th percentile average on the Verbal and Quantitative sections, and a 3.5 on Analytical Writing. Or a total GMAT score in the 40th percentile.
3. Complete Graduate Enrichment Fellowship Statement within the application to the MEd program.

For more information about funding opportunities, visit OSU’s Graduate School and EHE’s Scholarships and Student Enrichment.

Important Application To-dos

- Make sure to meet with a T&L representative to discuss prerequisite coursework.
- Submit any documents you forgot to include with your application via the Document Uploader found on the Graduate and Professional Admission application website.
- Applicants are advised to keep copies of all application materials submitted to OSU for their own records.

Transfer Application Process

Graduate students who were admitted into a degree program (e.g., masters, Ph. D., etc.), paid fees for at least one term, and plan to pursue a separate degree must complete an intra-university transfer electronic form. These students should contact a Teaching and Learning representative for application directions. Intra-university transfer students will be instructed to apply online and submit:

- Statement of Intent: Follow the same guidelines as first-time applicants to the Graduate School
- Resume: Follow the same guidelines as first-time applicants to the Graduate School
- Letters of Recommendation: 2 are required. The application will prompt you to submit the email addresses of your recommenders. We only accept electronic submissions
- Prerequisite completion plan: Follow the same guidelines as first-time applicants to the Graduate School.
- ACTFL Oral Proficiency Interview and Writing Proficiency Test (World Language MEd Applicants only): Follow the same guidelines as first-time applicants to the Graduate School
